

WIRELESS POLICY
Enfield Public Library

PURPOSE

To make available walk-in Internet access to patrons who have their own portable computers.

WIRELESS LIMITATIONS AND DISCLAIMERS:

The wireless network will be operational during library hours.

Patrons are encouraged to use their own battery power as electrical outlets are limited.

Patrons are encouraged to use headphones when listening to audio/video programs.

It is the responsibility of the wireless user to provide up-to-date antivirus software.

We have made every effort to provide wireless access to all areas in the library. However, there may be "deadspots" in which case we recommend changing your location.

The library's wireless network is not secure. Information sent to and from your computer can be captured by anyone with a wireless device and the appropriate software.

The Enfield Public Library will not be providing, installing or supporting any software on a patron's personal computer equipment.

The library staff is not able to provide technical assistance as everyone's computer is different. Nor can we guarantee that you will be able to make a wireless connection.

The library cannot assume any responsibility for the safety of a patron's computer or their equipment, also the Enfield Public Library can assume no responsibility for the configurations, security or data files resulting from connection to the library's wireless network.

Printing is not available.
